

first friday

Art starts here

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 2026 | 5:00 - 8:00 PM

2232 CERAMICS
1407 w 1st | 5-7 pm

Explore a new pottery studio on First and Cedar featuring handmade ceramics. Emily from Em Knits will also be on site.

AVENUE WEST GALLERY
907 w boone | 3-7 pm

A dual exhibition featuring pastel and acrylic paintings by Debbie Hughbanks and resin and metal works by Jim Bauer. Enjoy live music while exploring both artists' work.

BARRISTER WINERY
1213 w railroad alley | 5-10 pm

Featuring artwork by Dylan Lipsker and live music from The Kevin Shay Band.

BEN GALLERY
1 n post | 3-11:30 pm

Ben Joyce showcases new work celebrating the colors of fall through his Limited-Edition and Wooden Collections.

BIG CITY ART GALLERY
1107 w 1st | 5-8 pm

Stunning one of a kind glass acrylic infused art pieces. If you're looking to add some color to your wall,

BIG CITY COMMUNITY ART GALLERY
1105 w 1st | 5-8:30 pm

Explore new work by Matt Schwenk, an internationally collected mixed-media artist known for textural abstract and photorealist paintings incorporating crushed glass and dreamlike scenes inspired by nature and travel.

BRICK WEST BREWING CO
1318 w 1st | 6-9 pm

DJ Matt Shuman spins live on the plaza. No cover – free to attend, with Brick West beer, cocktails and food available from the kitchen.

CHASE GALLERY
808 w spokane falls | 5-8 pm

"Traversing" features collaborative work by Idaho artists Sally Graves Machlis and Delphine Keim. Meet the artists and enjoy poetry readings from the Teen Poetry Cohort at Spark Central.

CLTRE GALLERY
425 W 2nd | 5-9 PM

Stop by CLTRE Gallery during First Friday to explore the gallery and experience an evening of art in downtown Spokane.

D2 GALLERY
310 w 1st | 5-8 pm

Explore Targets, a thought-provoking mixed-media installation by Michael Dinning that reflects on a world where empathy is discouraged and entire groups of people become targets.

ENTROPY
101 n stevens | 5-8 pm

"The Way I See It" features work by Erik Sohner, exploring still life and constructed realities through light painting, photography and composite imagery.

FIRST AVENUE COFFEE
1011 w 1st | 5-8 pm

Stop by First Avenue Coffee during First Friday to enjoy an evening of art, coffee and downtown creativity.

FRONT ROOM
115 s adams | 4-8 pm

"Woven Heritage" brings together paintings by Red Matthews and Erin Lang with woven fiber works by Kimber Follevaag, exploring personal, cultural and family histories.

INDABA COFFEE
518 w riverside | 5-7 pm

Featuring artists from the River Ridge Association of Fine Arts. Enjoy local art alongside 30% off beer and wine in a vibrant downtown café setting.

JUNE & CO.
123 s wall | 5-8 pm

Explore artwork by Morgan Rose Lynch. This collection of nine paintings examines the relationship between power and balance.

LIBERTY GALLERY
203 n washington | 5-8 pm

Members of the River Ridge Association of Fine Arts explore the theme of Water through a variety of mediums, styles, sizes and perspectives.

MARMOT ART SPACE
1202 w summit pkwy | 5-8 pm

Spokane artist Gordon Wilson presents new paintings inspired by reflections and places in Italy, Germany and Spokane. The exhibition also honors Marmot founder Marshall Peterson and their long creative partnership.

NEW MOON GALLERY
1326 e sprague | 5-8 pm

"Functional Art" explores the creative and practical possibilities of art, celebrating works that are both visually engaging and useful.

THE PARKADE PLAZA
122 n howard | 6-8 pm

Experience live art at First Friday Face-Off, where Spokane artists create original work during a high-energy, two-hour creative showdown.

POTTERY PLACE PLUS
203 n washington | 5-8 pm

A dual exhibition featuring soft pastel works by Barbara Anderson and Patty Driscoll. Explore each artist's distinct approach to color, composition and subject.

SPOKANE ART SCHOOL
503 e 2nd | 5-8 pm

Explore more than 30 juried works from the Spokane Watercolor Society. The exhibition will remain on display through September 25.

TERRAIN
628 n monroe | 5-8 pm

"Found in Translation" by Elizabeth Lancaster explores family, immigration and memory through watercolor works inspired by stories of her father and family's experience emigrating from Mexico.

TRACKSIDE STUDIO
115 s adams | 5-8 pm

"HandBuilt" features five notable ceramic artists from across the United States, including Spokane artist Collista Krebs, alongside artists

first friday

Art starts here

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1. 2232 ceramics 1407 W 1st | 8. chase gallery 808 W Spokane Falls | 17. marmot art space 1202 W Summit Pkwy |
| 2. avenue west gallery 907 W Boone | 9. citre gallery 425 W 2nd | 18. new moon gallery 1326 E Sprague |
| 3. barrister winery 1213 W Railroad Alley | 10. d2 gallery 310 W 1st | 19. the parkade plaza 122 n howard |
| 4. ben gallery 1 n post | 11. entropy 101 N Stevens | 20. pottery place plus 203 N Washington |
| 5. big city art gallery 1107 W 1st | 12. first avenue coffee 1011 W 1st | 21. spokane art school 503 E 2nd |
| 6. big city community art gallery 1105 W 1st | 13. front room 115 S Adams | 22. terrain 628 N Monroe |
| 7. brick west brewing co 1318 W 1st | 14. indaba coffee 518 W Riverside | 23. trackside studio 115 S Adams |
| | 15. june & co. 123 S Wall | |
| | 16. liberty gallery 203 N Washington | |

Online map at www.firstfridayspokane.org